LONDON, June 30.

ORDERS are dispatched for the Militia in all the Counties of England and Wales, to hold themselves in Readiness to march down to the Sea Coast upon the first Notice.

A new Train of Artillery is preparing at Woolwich, for the Service of the Troops that are to form a Camp in the Isle of Wight.

July 3. Letters from [illegible] from Gibraltar [illegible]

[illegible]

"At Havre-de-Grace they are now practising an Embarkation and Disembarkation of Cavalry upon the new Boats. If the Operation can be supported on our unfavourable Coasts, there can be no Room to doubt of its Success upon the Coasts of England, which are far more accessible. The Count de Herouville is gone to see this Essay, and to remark the Improvements whereof the Thing is susceptible. If we succeed in this Expedition, Pride must soon give Way to Moderation, and the Hand of Peace will re-establish the Rights of Nations upon a solid Foundation."

Proof was lately made at Stettin, in Pomerania, of a Mortar of a new Invention, which, tho' it weighs only 60 lb. and may be easily moved with its Carriage by two Men, will carry a small Bomb or Grenade weighing 12 lb. as far, and to the same Height, as a Mortar weighing 3 or 400 wt.

We hear that the Forces now on Foot, and compleat, in this Kingdom, are as follows, viz. two Troops of Horse, and two Troops of Horse Grenadier Guards; seven Regiments of Dragoons; the three Regiments of Foot-Guards; 34 Regiments of Foot, and 32 Independent Companies. These, with the Militia of such Counties as are well trained and ready for Service, will together make up at least a Body of 60,000 Men.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Gambia, to his Friend in London; giving an Account of the Loss of Capt. John Engledue, and his Crew, in the Sloop Speedwell.

SIR, James Fort, March 4, 1759.

"——I had wrote thus far, when I was interrupted by the most shocking News I ever yet experienced: Oh my Friend! Engledue and the Sloop are no more (what a dreadful Alternative!) cut off by those damn'd Villains in the Cassanka Country, who attacked him at the Port of Trade, where he nobly defended himself; he weighed Anchor to get clear of the Creek; they pursued, and hard-fought him, he killing seventeen of the Brutes: At last being wounded with an Arrow in the Breast, and most of the Crew destroyed, he went into the Cabbin, opened the Powder Scuttle, hailed the Natives to come on board, collected the Remains of his Crew, laid a Train, walked the Quarter-Deck with his Pistol in his Hand, a black Boy standing ready with a lighted Match; when he saw a sufficient Number on board, he gave the Word of Command to fire; my faithful Slave obeyed; their Bodies were scattered in the Air, and the Almighty, I hope, with open Arms, was ready to receive their Souls. Above thirty of the Barbarians perished by the Explosion. Thus died, like a Hero, poor Engledue, with eight fine Lads, my own Slaves, whom he trained up; they steered by the Compass, and were compleat Seamen; there, there's my Loss, the Cargo was trifling. It is not 20 Days past that I was with the King in the Cassanka Country, and settled, as I thought, a lasting Friendship with him. He received me with all Demonstrations of Joy and Honour; said, that as the French were now driven out of his Country, he looked upon us as his only Friends; sold me Slaves, and I parted from him on the best Terms in the World. It is not ten Days ago that I left the Sloop, all well, and in perfect Harmony, and brought a few Slaves to the Fort, in order to dispose of them for Goods; nor is there any Account of the least falling out between Engledue and the Natives, but that they fell on him for the Sake of Plunder. The brave Defence, and the Disappointment of the Villains, will strike a Terror, and render them cautious how they attempt the like. I wish my private Misfortune may prove an Advantage to the Public. Engledue deserves to be immortalised; others tamely offered their Throats. At present I am more fit for a Bed than writing; for the glorious Exit of Engledue and my Boys are still uppermost in my Thoughts. The Vessel this goes by is under Way, and I must conclude; indeed 'tis with Difficulty I can write at all: You are the only one by this Conveyance: Till then my Friends must excuse me. I am, &c.

"P. S. About the same Time that Capt. John Engledue was blown up, his Brother from Bristol had the Misfortune to be shipwrecked on some Shoals to the Southward of Gambia: The Ship afterwards floated off, but, notwithstanding their Endeavours to save her, she suddenly sunk. The Captain and Crew took to their Boats, and after being 14 Days in them, arrived safe at Sierra Leone; where the first News the poor Captain received, was, that his Brother was blown up.——What a Train of Misfortunes happen to some People!"

ST. JAGO DE LA VEGA, in JAMAICA, July 28.

On Thursday died, at the Pen of James Wallen, Esq; in Liguanea, at forty Minutes after Four in the Afternoon, his Excellency GEORGE HALDANE, Esq; whose Death, as it is an irreparable Loss to this Island, is exceedingly lamented by all Ranks of People. To describe a Character so good and worthy as that of his Excellency, requires the Pen of some masterly Hand: We shall therefore only say, what every Individual is Witness to, that his Exercise of the Government of this Island, tho' short, was such, as promised the greatest Happiness to the Community; and that his whole Behaviour and Conduct demonstrated, that he had it greatly at Heart, to promote an universal Harmony, and diffuse a brotherly Love through every Part thereof.

Yesterday the Commission of his Honour Henry Moore, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor, was published with the usual Formalities.

CHARLES-TOWN, in SOUTH-CAROLINA, August [illegible]

[illegible] When the Party of Creek Indians came to Keowee in the Lower Cherokee Country, [illegible] Prince-George, headed by a Fellow of [illegible] intirely devoted to the French Intereſt, called the Young-Twin, and accompanied by two Shawaneſes. None ſeemed to know the Buſineſs they came upon; they pretended only a Viſit or a Ramble; yet it was obſerved that the Young-Twin held frequent private Conferences in the Woods with the Cherokees: On the 3d Inſtant, this Party, with a Number of Cherokees, ſet out for the Creek Nation. Nothing yet tranſpired of the Young-Twin's Errand, till the 4th, when a very fortunate Accident revealed a dangerous Conſpiracy, entered into by ſome of both Nations (how many does not yet appear) to break out a War with the Engliſh; to begin it by a general Maſſacre of our Traders, at their great Buſk, or Green-corn-dance, on the 24th Inſtant, and to follow it, by immediately after falling on all our poor Back-Settlers. No leſs alarming are the Accounts contained in Letters brought by the Expreſs that arrived here on the 10th Inſtant; but we hope this Diſcovery has been timeouſly made to prevent the Plot being carried into Execution. Proper Meaſures are taking by this Government to that End; and the Provincials are forthwith to march from Port-Royal, under the Command of Capt. John Stewart, for the Cherokee Nation.

The Accompliſhment of a Peace with the Chactaws ſeems now to be out of Diſpute, provided the Creeks in general are not concerned in the Conſpiracy lately diſcovered. They ſhewed an Inclination to embrace our Intereſt, ſo early as when Capt. Pepper was ſent from this Government on an Agency to the Creek Nation; and it is probable that a Treaty between them and us, is finally concluded by this Time; that being, as we are informed, one grand Object of the Honourable Mr. Atkin's Negociations. The genuine Poverty of the Chactaws ſeems to indicate that they ſhould have taken ſuch a Meaſure long ſince; for although the French Commandants at Mobille, Halbams, &c. may now and then obtain a few Goods to debauch our Indian Allies; yet it appears, that the Chactaws in general have been, during the preſent War, deſtitute almoſt of every Neceſſary. By the laſt Accounts the Treaty was ſo near ratifying, that ſeveral Creek Traders were then making ready to carry Goods into the Nation.

The Negroes that have been ſome Time in our Jail for ſeditious Practices, were laſt Week examined by his Excellency the Governor in Council; when two of them, viz. Philip Johns, and John Pendarvis, were remanded to Jail, and the Reſt diſcharged. They are now to be tried, agreeable to the Direction of the Negro Act, in the County where their Offences were committed. Johns manifeſtly appears to have had very wicked Intentions; and according to every Evidence that appeared againſt him, had communicated his Deſign to the moſt ſenſible Fellows throughout the Province, and even Charles-Town, and recommended to them to do the ſame, but it does not appear that his Scheme had that Weight he expected; and to ſome of the Evidences he told, that the Indians were to be concerned in the Extirpation of the white People from the Face of this Earth.

Auguſt 25. We have not learned any further Particulars of the Young-Twin's Plot, than that when he opened it to the Cherokees, they rejected his Propoſal, and conſented conditionally only, that the Creeks ſhould ſtrike the firſt Blow; And that one Part of their Agreement was, not to ſhew the leaſt Diſlike, but make the ſtrongeſt outward Profeſſions of Friendſhip to the white People, till the very Day appointed to murder them.

Beſides the Reinforcement of Troops ordered to the Cherokee Country, ſeveral Waggons, loaded with Stores, were ſent for our Forts laſt Week.

Some Letters inſinuate, that Togulki, Malatchi's Son, is at the Bottom of the Indian Conſpiracy.

BASSETERRE, in ST. CHRISTOPHERS, Auguſt 15.

His Majeſty's Ship Creſcent, Thomas Collingwood, Eſq; Commander, brought into the Road of Baſſeterre, on Sunday laſt, the Berkley, a French Man of War of 20 Guns, late commanded by Jean Galline. The Creſcent attacked the Amethyſte, a French Frigate of 32 Guns, as well as the abovementioned of 20: But the former being to windward of him, he could not bring her to a cloſe Engagement, and the Creſcent's ſtanding and running Rigging, and ſome of her Maſts, being much damaged, Captain Collingwood was obliged to repair them, during which Time the Amethyſte made off; and, as he found it fruitleſs to follow her longer, he ſtood for the Berkley again, and, after a ſhort Engagement, took her.

A Brigantine, and a Letter of Marque Sloop, taken by his Majeſty's Sloop Antigua, James Innes Commander, were brought in the next Day. They were bound to St. Euſtatia from Martinico, and were under Convoy of the two above named Men of War.

The Rebecca, Capt. Hubbil, a Letter of Marque Sloop belonging to Anguilla, of eight Men and ſix Guns, has carried into Sandy Point a large Sloop belonging to the above mentioned Fleet. This laſt Veſſel is loaded (as are alſo the other Prizes) with Sugar, and the other Produce of the French Iſlands.

BOSTON, September 3.

We have an Account from the Weſt-Indies, of about 20 Days ſince, that M. Bompar was certainly ſailed from Cape-François to the South Side of Hiſpaniola, with 6 Sail of the Line, and one Frigate; and not gone to France as lately reported.

Extract of a Letter from a Provincial Officer at Annapolis-Royal, to his Friend in Boſton, dated Auguſt 1, 1759.

"On the 12th of June laſt, I went with a Party, conſiſting of 100 Men, to Cape-Sables, where we took 150 French, and ſent them to Halifax, and 8 Shallops, in which we brought off 50 Sheep, 3 Cows, 4 Heifers, ſome Hogs, &c. We returned here the 27th of the ſame Month, all well.——Yeſterday a Shallop arrived here from St. John's, by which we have Advice, that Col. Arbuthnot has taken two French Men Priſoners; and that there is a remarkable Time of Health there, as well as here.

By the Courier from Albany we learn, That General Amherſt with the Army ſtill remained at Crown-Point, where they were building another Brig, of 18 ſix and nine Pounders, and which was near ready to launch:——That Captain [illegible] had the Chief Command of 5 French Veſſels of Force on Lake Champlain, whom our ſcouting Parties diſcovered; almoſt every Thing was in great Forwardneſs in order to proceed to St. John's; and that it was ſaid all would be ready to put off by the 23d ult.

Some Deſerters that are come into our Camp from St. John's ſay, That the French Regulars at that Place had inſiſted that the Indians then there ſhould quit the Fort, upon a Confidence that they were of themſelves able to defend the Fortifications without their Aſſiſtance; upon which they left it; and there remains at St. John's no more than 1200 Regulars, and about 13 or 1400 Canadians, with two Batteries.

NEW-YORK, September 10.

We hear from the Weſt-Indies, that Capt. [illegible], in a Privateer from this Port, is taken by Monſieur Bompar's Squadron.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Boſton to his Friend in this City, wrote juſt before the Poſt came away on Tueſday laſt.

"This Day a Veſſel arrived here from the Iſle of Coudre, in the River St. Lawrence, which ſhe left the 16th of Auguſt, in Company with the Diana Frigate, and 28 other Veſſels, that were damaged in the late Storm, bound to Halifax and Boſton. The Captain informs, General Wolfe landed Part of his Army upon the South Side of the River St. Lawrence, in order to beſiege the City to greater Advantage, but they were attacked by the Enemy, and obliged to retire with the Loſs of 500 Men, killed and wounded; and out of 200 Highlanders that were in the Action, but 24 returned fit for Duty. Colonel Fraſer was wounded, but not badly. That the Lower City is reduced to Aſhes, but the Upper City our Cannon could not reach. That when they came away, our Army was reimbarking their Mortars, from Point Levee, in order to go and fortify the Iſle of Coudre, which is to be garriſoned by 5000 Men during the Winter, and the Men of War are to be ſtationed in the Bay of Gaſpy. This Account was taken from the Captain's Relation, as no Letters are arrived, they being all on board the Diana."

A LIST of Regiments and Troops, upon the Expedition againſt Quebec, under the Command of Major-General WOLFE, viz.

Three Companies of Light Infantry, commanded by Major DALLING.

Six Hundred Rangers, commanded by Major SCOTT.

Two Thouſand Marines, and 300 Provincials added; the whole amounting to near 10,000 Men.

Engineers. Major Mackeller; Capt. Lieutenants Debbeige, Williamſon, and Montreſure; Lieutenants Goddard, Benſels, and Dubbers.

The Albany Poſt, who arrived here laſt Night, informs, that General Amherſt with his Army remained yet at Crown-Point, all in good Health; that it was currently reported at Albany, that Brigadier General Gage had ſet out from Oſwego, with a large Body of his Army, in order to attack Oſwegatchi, &c. That on Thurſday laſt, an Expreſs from Boſton went through Albany, with Letters for General Amherſt, relating to the Situation of General Wolfe, and his Army.

We hear the Diana Frigate is arrived at Boſton.

Extract of a Letter from Crown-Point, dated Auguſt 31.

"All I can tell you concerning our preſent Operations is, That we are building a very fine Fort, and ſeveral ſmall Ones at proper Diſtances to ſtrengthen it; at the ſame time we are preparing armed Veſſels to get the Command of the Lake, as the Enemy, we are told, have ſeveral armed Veſſels. What further is to happen, Time muſt ſhew. The Army has been ſo healthy, that only one Man of the ſix Regiments of Regulars has died a natural Death ſince we left Albany. The Provincials are pretty healthy, but not ſo much ſo as the Regulars. The Man that died belonged to the 17th Regiment."

Monday Morning laſt the Snow Albany, Captain Beaton, arrived here from London, but laſt from Portland in ſeven Weeks: He ſailed from thence in Company with the Noble-Galley, Capt. Mancheſter, the Captains Roſe and Wolfe, in Store Ships, for this Port, and 30 Sail more bound to different Parts of the Weſt-Indies and North-America, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship the Garland, —— Buſhworth, Eſq; Commander, of 20 Guns, who had on board 145,000 l. Sterling, in Half Johannes's, for the Uſe of his Majeſty's Troops on this Continent, who arrived ſafe here on Tueſday. The other Veſſels are all arrived likewiſe. The 24th of Auguſt Capt. Mancheſter loſt his Mizen Maſt in a violent Gale of Wind.

The 19th of Auguſt Capt. Beaton ſpoke with Capt. Campbell in a Ship from Maryland, bound to Glaſgow, all well.

Friday laſt Mr. Peter Farmar, of this City, Merchant, came to Town from New-London, having arrived there two Days before, in the Schooner Hope, Capt. Dunn, from Halifax, which Place he left laſt Wedneſday Week. Mr. Farmar went Paſſenger, about ſix Weeks ago, in the Sloop Elizabeth, George Shaw, Maſter, bound to Louiſbourg and Quebec, but had the Misfortune to be taken the 11th of Auguſt by a ſmall French Schooner Privateer, of three Swivel Guns, and 60 Men, Monſ. Paul Le Blanche, Commander, belonging to a little neutral Settlement in the Gut of Canſo, but had a Commiſſion from Quebec. The above Privateer took the following Veſſels, viz. Auguſt 9. Schooner George, Jacob Clark, Maſter, from Salem, on a Fiſhing Voyage; Aug. 10. Schooner Swallow, George Glover, Maſter, from Salem, on a Fiſhing Voyage; the ſame Day, Schooner Three Siſters, Robert Frye, Maſter, from Salem, on a Fiſhing Voyage; Aug. 11. Sloop Polly, from Halifax for Louiſburg, Thomas Armſtrong, Maſter; Aug. 15. Schooner Sparrow, Tobias Davis, Maſter, from Salem, on a Fiſhing Voyage; Auguſt 23. Brig Charming Betſey, Richard Newnam, Maſter, from London for Halifax. Auguſt 25. Schooner [illegible], [illegible], Maſter, from Boſton to Louiſburg; and, the ſame Day, Sloop Polly, Eliſha Glover, Maſter, from Boſton to Louiſburg.

Monſieur Le Blanche never cruiſed out of Sight of Land, as he was the only Navigator on board, the whole Crew being compoſed of the Inhabitants of a little Settlement in the Gut of Canſo, who were obliged to put to Sea in Search of Proviſions, as Capt. Farmar believes, they had nothing left but [illegible] to eat before they took the abovementioned Engliſh Veſſels, and that the Priſoners were allowed but very little of that, being ſix in Number, and who were left on board a Schooner in a Harbour near Halifax many Days with a Guard, until Monſieur had finiſhed his Cruize, who uſed to viſit them every 2 or 3 Days; but that being completed to his Satisfaction, he gave the Schooner Three Siſters to Capt. Frye to carry the Priſoners to Halifax, where they all arrived ſafe.

The above Privateer having infeſted the Coaſt of Cape-Breton ſome Time before ſhe took the Veſſels above mentioned, two Sloops were fitted out in order to bring her in; but as ſoon as ſhe perceived them, ſhe ran into ſhallow Water, when the Crew took to their Boat and all went on Shore, and galled the two Sloops ſo well with their ſmall Arms from the Bank behind Trees, that they were obliged to ſheer off, with conſiderable Loſs, having ſeveral of their Men killed.

Captain Dunn, with whom Mr. Farmar came Paſſenger, left Quebec the 8th of Auguſt, but gave a very imperfect Account of the Situation of our Fleet and Army at that Place, which was then in the Hands of the French.

Friday laſt Capt. Bell ſailed from Sandy-Hook in a Sloop for the Weſt-Indies; but about Two o'Clock, on Saturday Morning, ſhe ſunk down, 25 Leagues from the Land, and the Crew had ſo little Time to get out their Boat, that it was with Difficulty they ſaved themſelves: They all, 12 in Number, got ſafe up here Yeſterday.

A few Months ago, died in Dutcheſs County, in this Province, Mr. Jeremiah Kanniff, aged 96 Years; whoſe Wife died about 3 Years ſince: They lived together in the Marriage State 72 Years and 9 Months!

PHILADELPHIA, September 13.

By Captain Lanning, from Barbados, we have Advice, that the Ship Firſt of Auguſt, Captain Bowd, from this Port for that Iſland, was attacked by a French Privateer, of 10 or 12 Guns, and above 100 Men, about 30 Leagues to Windward of his Port. The Engagement began at Seven at Night, and continued very hot till Twelve; during which Time Captain Bowd beat the Privateer off three Times, and chaced her the laſt Time, but could not come up with her. Captain Bowd had but 17 Hands, including two Boys, who all behaved extraordinary well; as did a Paſſenger he had on board. There were none killed or wounded on board the Firſt of Auguſt, but the Enemy was ſuppoſed to have ſuſtained conſiderable Damage.

Captain Darrell, from Bermuda, in Lat. 34. 50. North, and Long. 63. 38. Weſt, ſaw ten Sail of Veſſels ſteering N. E. one of which, a very large Ship, ſuppoſed to be a Man of War, and their Convoy. He imagined them to be homeward bound, from Cape François. Two other Veſſels were following the Fleet, which he took to be Engliſh Privateers.

From Fort Auguſta we learn, that the Garriſon was well there the Firſt Inſtant: That a Number of Indians were at that Place, in order to trade with our People, who all ſeemed well ſatisfied, and very quiet: That there were amongſt them ſome Families from Allegheny, who ſaid they would go and ſettle at Wyoming: And that ſeveral of the Mingo Indians had alſo been at that Fort, and brought with them a white Priſoner, a Lad about ſixteen Years of Age, who was carried off from Juniata four Years ago.

The Sloop Nancy, Capt. Adams, of this Port, lately taken by the French on her Paſſage to Antigua, is retaken by a Letter of Marque Veſſel.

The Ship Pruſſian Hero, Capt. Mitchell, bound to Antigua from this Place, ran aſhore on the Nine Foot Bank at Barbuda. Part of her Cargo was got out, and it was thought the Ship would be ſaved.

ANNAPOLIS, September 20.

Sunday Evening arrived here the Brig Sarah and Catherine, Capt. Thomas Flint, from New-Caſtle on Delaware; who informs us, that off our Capes, he was chaced by a French Privateer, ſuppoſed to mount 18 or 20 Guns (14 of which he counted) who fired ſeveral Shot at him, and that he very narrowly eſcaped being taken.

Thurſday laſt John Bourke, of Queen-Anne's County, was tried at the Bar of the Provincial Court, for the Murder of his Wife, of which he was found Guilty, and received Sentence of Death.

The Day following, George Sheet, Boatſwain of the Ship Thetis, was tried for Killing the Cabbin Boy of the ſaid Ship, and was found Guilty.

We can aſſure the Public, that the Flux, which has been ſome Time very rife in Upper-Marlborough, is not now in that Town, and that the Inhabitants are free from any contagious Diſtemper.
